

Questions and Answers

In the time I have been a pastor, including here at Zion, I have received some questions on a host of different topics. Some of these have been asked many times. I am devoting this newsletter article to some of those questions and how I answer them.

Q: Pastor, why do we say that “we believe in the holy catholic church” in the Apostles’ Creed, when we’re not Catholic?

A: In the Creed the word “catholic” is written with a lower case ‘c’ and not a capital ‘C’. When the word is capitalized it is referring to the Roman Catholic tradition. When it is in the smaller case, the word simply means the whole Christian church on earth.

Q: Pastor, on banners and paraments sometimes I see the letters INRI. What do they mean?

A: These letters are the acronym for the Latin phrase “Jesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum” which means “Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews.” This was the phrase that Pilate ordered to be written over the head of Jesus on the cross. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘This man said, I am King of the Jews.’” Pilate answered, “What I have written I have written.” (John 19:21-22)

Q: Pastor, I often notice you cross yourself and so do some others in our congregation. I always thought that doing that was a Roman Catholic gesture and not a Lutheran one?

A: Making the sign of the cross from head to heart and side to side is an ancient practice. It is a gesture that is very Roman Catholic, and it is also embraced by other denominations to a lesser extent. The act of crossing is often done when the words, “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” are said. This is the name of God and the crossing is a physical way to enact God’s name. We are all baptized in this same name. Crossing one’s self is also then, a reminder of our baptism and to whom we belong. Many times people will cross themselves just before or after receiving Holy Communion which is a great tie between the two sacraments.

Q: Pastor, why do you break the bread at communion after the Lord’s Prayer and not when you say the words of institution - that Jesus, gave thanks, broke, and gave the bread?

A: The practice of breaking the bread during Holy Communion is done both ways in our denomination. Sometimes it depends on what seminary a pastor attended, but I noticed professors at my seminary doing it both ways. My understanding of those who break it when they say that “Jesus broke the bread,” is to put emphasis on those words that are being spoken in the moment. For those that do it after the Lord’s Prayer there are other considerations. First, we are saying that Jesus is “on the table” in the bread and wine, so for me to then act out being Jesus in the words, might take away from the focus of Christ’s presence in the bread and wine. Secondly, breaking the bread – which is called the fracture – is done at the end of the communion liturgy as a sign that all things are now ready and an invitation is extended to come to the table. It is really a pastor’s preference and what they want to theologically emphasize in the breaking of the bread. There is no wrong way.

Q: Pastor, back in the day we all said the Prayer of the Day together. Why do only you say it?

A: The Prayer of the Day is expected to be said by the pastor, not on behalf of the congregation, rather for the congregation. It lifts up themes of the day and centers us on our worship. This prayer is a gift for the congregation from the speaking of the pastor.

Sunday School News

Let Your Life's Light be a Window to Christ Mark Your Calendar for Sunday School Christmas Program

Our Sunday School Christmas Program: No Fuss All Congregation Christmas Program is scheduled for December 17th during service. In addition to the Sunday School kids, all members of the Congregation are welcome to participate. Most parts are non-speaking. There will also be a pizza party/practice for the program for Sunday School kids on Saturday Dec. 16th from 10:00am to 12:30pm.

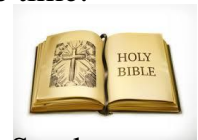

All Congregation Ornament Making Party – Make One and Take One.

The Sunday School Kids are making ornaments for a Hometown Christmas Tree. The kids picked the theme of hearts, so most of the ornaments will be heart themed. We started making ornaments on Oct. 15th but because we don't have a lot of kids in Sunday School the Christian Nurturing Committee decided to host an All Congregation Ornament Making Party – Make One and Take One.

It will be November 15th from 5:30 – 7:30pm in Linda's Lounge. A light supper of hot dogs, chips and dessert will be provided. Participants can make an ornaments for the Hometown Christmas Tree and make one to take home. You can stop in for a short while or stay the whole time. Come join us for fun and fellowship while helping to make some ornaments!

First Bibles

First Bibles will be presented to 3rd graders on October 29th, Reformation Sunday.

Leader Needed

We are still in need of a Sunday School Leader for the older kids. You would be working with students in third – sixth grades. They are a great group of kids!! Become part of the Sunday School team. We will work with all schedules. If you have any questions contact Pat Castro at 815-520-5660.

Next Meeting of Christian Nurturing Committee will be on November 12 at 11:15am. Come Join Us!

Community Meal

Spaghetti, salad, French bread, and brownies for dessert were on the menu for the October Community Meal. Many of the guests having dinner that night came back for second helpings, and a few for thirds. With the 74 people attending the October meal, we have already exceeded the total number of those served all of last year. Thank you for the continued support of this important and increasingly necessary ministry.

The kitchen crew for the night included Marilee, Kris, Linda, Dawn, JoAnne, Sharon, Kathy, Terry and Larry. Those who helped with the dishwashing deserve special thanks, as we were running out of plates midway through the meal, and there were many, many pots and pans to wash.

The next meal is on Wednesday, November 8th. There is a volunteer sign-up sheet posted on the bulletin board.

Pioneer Luncheon

It will still be potluck if you can bring a dish to share it would be appreciated. Please be there and ready to eat at noon if at all possible so we will have time for our program.

We have a great program in store for you! Pastor Elizabeth has offered to be our presenter. She visited Greece in October of 2022 on an Apostle Paul pilgrimage tour. She will share with us the most impressive part of her travels, the Monasteries of Meteora. At one time there were 21 monasteries built on the top of rock pinnacles.

Come and join us for lunch and stay for this interesting presentation! New faces always welcome and feel free to bring a guest!

Commitment Sunday

November 12th, Commitment Sunday, is rapidly approaching. Hopefully, you have received the letter and commitment card. On Sunday the 12th, you will be invited to place your card into the offering plate. For privacy you can put your card into an envelope. If you would like, you can drop off your card at church or mail it in using the enclosed stamped envelope. On Sunday December 3rd, you are invited for coffee and cake, hosted by the Witness Committee, in the Fellowship Hall after service to celebrate the completion of a successful Stewardship campaign. Thank you for your participation and support!

Road Clean Up

Stewardship can be defined as “Utilizing and managing all resources God provides for the glory of God and the betterment of His creation.” On Saturday, October 21st seven Zion members practiced stewardship by collecting trash and litter along a nearly two mile stretch of Genoa Road. This is part of Boone County’s Adopt-A-Highway program. Their reward for this effort was the satisfaction of a job well done, and for some, a well deserved nap that afternoon.

Sharing Christs Love

HELLO, MY NAME IS.....I DON'T THINK WE HAVE MET.

Visitors need to feel welcomed, more like guests. The best way for that to happen is for them to meet someone, to shake a hand, have a conversation. Being a welcoming congregation is the responsibility of everyone.

Do you know the names of the other people sitting in the pew? Maybe they are members of Zion that you have not met. Maybe they usually attend the other service or view the service online. Or maybe this is the first time they have been to Zion. Whatever the situation, introducing yourself is the first step in hospitality.

The next step depends on the result of the first. If they are new, do they need help understanding the service or shown where it is in the hymnal to follow along? Would they like to meet Pastor Elizabeth or see the rest of the church? Do they know where the restrooms are located? How about inviting them to the Fellowship Hall after the service for refreshments and introducing them to other members?

The holidays are fast approaching. A time when we will have more visitors. This is an opportunity to share the love of Christ in our hospitality.

Hello everyone!

thanks

Sorry this took so long, with Halloween right around the corner I am busier than ever! Also, I am not particularly good with thank yous. I spent most of my life alone and doing things on my own. Seeing people go out of their way to do things for me is still an alien concept in my eyes. I'm not sure I will ever used to it to be honest. I'm still a bit speechless about the whole ordeal and I don't believe I 'll ever find the right words to describe how much I truly appreciate every single one of you. It's astounding to me that I've been welcomed into such a large and diverse family of people with so many stories and from all different walks of life. I never thought I would get so close to so many of you, given some of my personal issues and quirks.

Every single one of you is a blessing and I hope I can one day learn to cherish every soul in the Zion family the way they deserve. Thank you all for being there. You are all a gift a from God.

Ronnie

Dear Zion family, with grateful hearts, Sharon and I would like to thank you for all the outpouring of love, friendship and sympathy we received through your prayers, cards, phone calls and text messages received during the recent passing of my father. They were all greatly appreciated.

Love and blessings to all of you.

Gary & Sharon Yunto

thank you

A huge thank you to John and Arlyn for making and installing the clothing rod for The Baby Bank! It functions so much better than the individual clothing racks we had before.

Happy Birthday from your Zion Family!
