

The Times They Are a-Changin'

With the staff transition in the office, we will not be offering a February Tidings, so this will be my last from The Pastor's Desk. This summer, Wayne and I enjoyed seeing the movie about Bob Dylan. A song featured in the movie was Dylan's, The Times They Are a-Changin' from 1964.

At least 15-20 years ago, when I was on staff in a congregation, we received a sample package in the mail - the kind they send out hoping that you will purchase their product. It was a small communion cup filled with grape juice, with a wafer securely wrapped on the lid. We laughed and laughed at this prospect. We even came up with a name for it - a Communion Happy Meal. Who in the world would use such a thing? Now, I realize that, especially in mega congregations that don't have multiple communion stations, this probably is helpful and makes sense to use. And who knew, fast-forward to the Covid years, that these little meals would be the body and blood of Christ for us. The Times They Are a-Changin'. Our Barnabas Ministers continue to use them for home communions.

Sometimes the word "change" gets a bad rap. We like what we know. It's safe, we don't have to go out on a limb, we don't have to worry about something flopping, or learning something different. And yet, change can bring new opportunities we might miss if we stay the same. And yes, sometimes change can be scary and intimidating, but it also can be so enriching. Two and a half years ago, it was time for me to leave my call, and the Lord called me to serve you as your Intentional Interim Pastor. New people and relationships to nurture, exciting new ministries to participate in, and learning and growth for Wayne and me. The Times They Are a-Changin'.

As we part ways, pastor and congregation, you are on the cusp of a new day. Our parting is certainly sad, and yet your future as the people of God here in Belvidere is wide open with new opportunities. Your next pastor will bring their special gifts, and you will grow, learn, serve, and love together. Wayne and I are moving into the next season of our lives, and it will be a new thing. You are also going to experience a newness of life as you move into Zion's next season of ministry. The Times They Are a-Changin'.

When I arrived at Zion, you were still struggling with pain and brokenness. Thank you for allowing me to be your pastor, to trust and confide in me, to let me try out some new things that you hadn't experienced before, and to invite Wayne and me fully into your church family. In what lies ahead for you and for us, we turn in prayer to God, trusting that Christ's cross and resurrection that brought us life, will meet all that is waiting for us, and bless us to be a blessing to others in a new way. That is the work of the church in these times that are a-changin' and in all times.

I thank my God for every remembrance of you, always in every one of my prayers for all of you, praying with joy for your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. (Philippians 1:3-6)

Embracing change as Christ leads us on,
Pastor Elizabeth Martin

Community Meal

The December Community Meal featured a ham dinner with au gratin potatoes, a vegetable, and a variety of desserts and Christmas cookies. Unfortunately, attendance was down significantly, as only 38 people were there to enjoy the meal.

Thank you to these volunteers who braved the cold weather and made this meal possible: Dawn, Judy, Linda, Lyle, Patti, Rodney, Wanda, and Wayne.

The next meal will be held on Wednesday, January 14. We will need about 10 people for this meal. If you would like to help, be sure to get your name on the volunteer sign-up sheet posted on the bulletin board.

Pioneer News

Thank you to Dawn Calkins and the Classic Chorale chorus for the Christmas music they provided at the December meeting of the Pioneer Club.

The January Pioneer Club will be held on Monday, January 12, starting at noon. Please bring your own table setting and a dish to pass for the potluck lunch. A meat dish will be provided with a free will offering to cover the cost.

For our entertainment, we are going to revert back to grade school and have a good old-fashioned Show-and-Tell. We are asking members to bring something they either bought, received as a gift, or made and tell us about it. Share your favorite Bible verse, poem or song and tell why it is important to you. Tell of a unique experience you may have had. Anything goes; it should be fun.

If you don't want to come for the potluck lunch but want to hear the stories, show up around 12:30. Have a cup of coffee and one of the many desserts, and enjoy the show.

New Members

Have you been worshipping with Zion and consider this your church home? Would you like to make it official by becoming a member? If so, Pastor Elizabeth will hold a short informational meeting, answer your questions, and send you with resources. You can then decide if you would like to become a member of Zion Lutheran. The meeting will be in the library after worship on Sunday, January 18th. The date to receive new members during worship is the following Sunday, January 25th. Please let Pastor Elizabeth know if you are interested so that materials can be ordered and prepared.

Christian Nurturing News

December was a busy month for the youth. They participated in decorating a Hometown Christmas tree. Thanks to Ms. Pat for organizing this. Decorating the CASA float and walking in the Hometown Parade was a cold but fun experience. Thanks to Heather and Jody for making this happen. Practicing the Christmas play to perform during church was a great time. The kids did a great job in the performance on Sunday as well.

Wishing Mandy the best in her new job! Your Zion family will miss you.

Thank you Zion for your "Generosity " to help our church move forward in 2026.

Thanks to all who helped decorate the church before the big snow arrived. Your hard work is appreciated and will help us celebrate Jesus' birthday in beautiful ways: Jane and Al Schuessler, Beth Hong, Kris Beever, Wayne Martin, Dawn Calkins, Sharon and Gary Yunto, Arlyn Groen, Michelle and Jeff Ernest, Marge Olson, Melissa and Scott Sell, and Donna Brookbank. As always, if anyone's name was not included, it was not intentional.
